To

The Dewan of Mysore.

ated Bangalore. 19th February 1919.

SIR,

I am directed to state, for the information of His Highness the Maharaja Sahib, that the Government of India have decided that the practice may be discontinued by which Ruling Princes and Chiefs addressing purely ceremonial Kharitas relating to greetings, on festivities, invitations to weddings, etcetera, to other Ruling Princes and Chiefs despatch them through the Political Officer or supply the latter with copies of them. There will accordingly now be no objection to the direct exchange of such Kharitas between Ruling Princes and Chiefs throughout India.

I have the honour to be.

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E H S James

First Assistant Resident.
